

Thai Yoga Massage

~ with Tatjana!

Experience the healing of yoga like stretches and deep pressure massage for body, mind and spirit

The Thai Yoga Massage Experience

Thai yoga massage, a healing method, combines muscle stretching and point pressure to relieve tension and encourage relaxation for tight and restless bodies. It is a dynamic form of body work that blends various techniques to achieve a state of deep relaxation and peaceful release in body, mind, and spirit.

It is performed fully clothed on a cushioned floor mat. During the session, a practitioner guides the recipient through a series of passive, yoga like stretches using her hands, forearms, elbows, knees and feet to compress and palpate the muscles of the body. Rhythmic rocking and acupressure techniques are used to replenish energy, relieve pain and lull the recipient into a relaxed state.

The Benefits...

Muscle stretching increases flexibility and relaxes the muscles to relieve pain and inflammation
Gentle movements lubricate joints reducing stiffness and improving mobility
Point pressure releases muscle tension and stimulates energy lines in the body
Increases blood circulation and lowers blood pressure helping to release stress
Detoxifies the body and boosts the immune system helping to prevent and alleviate illnesses
Provides relief from physical symptoms such as sciatica, back, neck and shoulder pain
Helps to balance emotions and can leave you feeling renewed, revitalized and refreshed
Produces a feeling of deep relaxation and wellbeing

Thai Foot Massage

~ with Tatjana!

Experience a deep and unique feeling of balance and tranquility through the soles of your feet

The Thai Foot Massage Experience:

Thai foot massage is a blend of the healing elements of India's Ayurvedic medicine, Japanese shiatsu and Chinese reflexology. Working with the feet and lower leg, this 2000 year old, highly reputed session frees up blocked energy within the body's many sen lines (Thai-based meridians) to produce a deep and unique feeling of balance, encourages relaxation and release of tension and fosters good health and well being throughout the entire body.

Performed on a Thai yoga mat or massage table, customized sessions begin with a warm foot soak proceeded by Thai foot massage techniques, including stretching, kneading, applied pressure to reflex points at the soles of the feet and massage of the whole foot and lower leg. The practitioner uses hands, fingers, thumbs, knuckles and a rounded wooden stick. Shea butter is applied to feet and lower legs. The session is completed with Thai yoga massage for legs, arms, hands, neck and head. Recipients are fully clothed in comfortable loose clothing.

Thai Foot Massage can be relaxing, soothing, calming, balancing and energizing for the entire body and especially for tired feet. The internal organs are stimulated during the Thai foot massage, giving the recipient a holistic treatment that can promote whole body wellness and healing.

The Benefits...

Improves circulation in feet and legs

Stimulates lymphatic drainage and boosts immune system

Relieves tension and stress and encourages physical healing

Helps maintain general good health and natural balance

Produces a feeling of tranquility, calmness and well being
